1. Interviews – Vacancy of Council Position #6

There were three of the four applicants in attendance, Amanda Heins, Mitch Long, and David Lussier.

The Council briefly discussed the format they would use for the interviews and it was decided that all applicants would remain in the room and take turns answering each question asked. Applicants would rotate answering first.

The Council then interviewed the three applicants by taking turns asking the following questions:

1. Why do you want to be on the Council?
2. What do you believe is the role of a Councilmember and what skills, qualities and experience do you bring to that role?
3. What do you see as the top three challenges of the City?
4. What do you think the City does well and or needs to improve to reach your vision for the City?
5. Are you willing to do the homework, training, and additional meetings involved in being a Councilmember, and/or do you foresee any other conflicts of interest with your employment or other activities if you are selected?
6. What would your agenda be during the first three months?
7. Please tell us how you would handle a decision made by the majority of the Council that you did not agree with.

After the interviews were completed the Mayor announced a brief recess before the regular meeting would begin.
